WHAT'S IN A NAME: ROBERT LYON OR ROBERT LYONS?

By Dolores (Lyons) Kingston

When I was a child, our grandfather, who we knew as Robert Lyons, told us that his surname was actually Lyon but that "some bloody Irishman tacked an 's' on it when he came to this country" from Motherwell, Lanarkshire, Scotland. As it turns out, my research shows that he was correct. On the ship manifest leaving England his name is shown as Robert Lyon and on the ship manifest arriving in New York City it is shown as Robert Lyons! But the irony is that our second great-grandfather's surname was Lyons and he was born in Ireland! So here is the story that I have unearthed with the help of the Familysearch.org and the ScotlandsPeople websites.

My great-grandfather was James Lyon. I knew this from my grandfather's ship manifest where it gave his father's name and from my second great-grandfather's birth record. I found James' death record and it said his father was named Robert Lyon and his mother was Sarah McReray. Well, that was a surname I had never encountered before and I suspected it was misspelled. After examining several records for his family, his mother's maiden name appears to have been McCreedy. His father's name was given as Robert Lyons on all the records for which Robert or his parents would have provided the information.

Robert Lyons was born on August 10, 1822, in Dromara, County Down, Northern Ireland. Dromara is a small village southwest of Ballynahinch. Robert probably died June 1, 1866, also in Dromara. I found a death record that seems to fit. Robert's father was James Lyons and his mother was Mary Chambers. James and Mary were married on February 20, 1820, in Dromara. I found birth records for eight children of James and Mary all born in Dromara. The records are from a Presbyterian parish so the origin of the Lyons clan was probably Scotland—they were "Scots Irish". The children of James and Mary are:

1. Robert Lyons (my ancestor) born August 10, 1822
2. John Lyons born July 13, 1826
3. James Lyons born February 20, 1828
4. William Lyons born April 10, 1830
5. Elizabeth Lyons born January 17, 1836
6. Annabella Lyons born March 5, 1838
7. Campbell Lyons born October 27, 1841
8. Arthur Lyons born June 16, 1844

On Sarah McCreedy's death record it said her parents were Hamilton McCreedy and Sarah Carson. I did not find her birth record, but I did find a birth record for what appears to be her brother, Hamilton McCreedy, born March 20, 1819, in Dromara. According to his birth record, he has the same parents as Sarah. Sarah was born about 1822 in County Down, probably in Dromara as well. Sarah died June 8, 1863, in Cleekhimin, Lanarkshire, Scotland and on her death record it says that she is the wife of Robert Lyons so he was still alive at that time. It was my great-grandfather James Lyon who was the informant for the death record.

Robert and Sarah Lyons had five children. According to the 1851 Scotland census, their two oldest sons William and James (my great-grandfather) were born in Ireland.

Ironically, the family must have moved to Scotland when the boys were very young because all later censuses say they were born in Airdrie and Clarkston, both in Lanarkshire, Scotland.

The younger children in the family were born in Airdrie and Clarkston. Robert and Sarah's children were:

1. William Chambers Lyons born September 1, 1842, in Dromara
2. James Lyons (my great-grandfather) born about 1846 presumably in Dromara
3. Robert Lyons born about 1849 in Clarkston
4. Sarah Lyons born July 1852 in Airdrie; died between 1900 and 1910 presumably in Pennsylvania
5. John Lyons born October 3, 1855, in Airdrie

The Scottish government required civil records starting in 1855 and I found the birth record for John Lyons although the surname is misspelled as Lyions. The record gives his parents names and that they were born in County Down, Ireland so that helped me connect the records in Dromara to my family.

I have only been able to find records for some of Robert and Sarah's children, in part because their names are very common!

William Chambers Lyons married Jane Steel born May 29, 1862, in Dalserf, Larkhall, Lanarkshire, Scotland. William and Jane were married on November 25, 1879, in Holytown, Lanarkshire, Scotland. They had at least one child: Robert Lyons born about 1881 in Bothwell, Lanarkshire, Scotland. I found a ship manifest that appears to be for this family and, if so, they immigrated to the United States in 1888 arriving in New York City and supposedly Pennsylvania was their destination. But I have not found any more records for them. They may have intended to join William's sister Sarah and her husband in Pennsylvania.

Sarah Lyons married George Sinclair born April 2, 1848, in Gartsherrie, Lanarkshire, Scotland; died January 24, 1930, in Beccaria, Clearfield, Pennsylvania. They were married on June 18, 1872, in Bothwell. The marriage record says that both of Sarah's parents are deceased. George's parents were James Sinclair born about 1826 and Mary Paterson born about 1828

Sarah Lyons and George Sinclair immigrated to the United States in 1882 and ended up in Pennsylvania. They had 10 children! And I am researching them next!

Going back to Robert Lyons born in 1822—I cannot find a death record for him in Scotland although he must have died between 1863 and 1872 and there should have been a civil record IF he died in Scotland. This is why I believe he went back to Dromara for some reason and died there.

So what is my grandpa's surname really? Lyon or Lyons? His father consistently spelled his name as James Lyon. But some of James' siblings spelled their surname as Lyons. Since the earliest records I have found were from a Presbyterian parish in Ireland and that is a denomination typical of the Scots and not the Irish, my guess is that the surname was originally Lyon. Lyon is the typical Scottish spelling of the surname. Lyons appears to be an Irish surname. Perhaps when my ancestors moved from Scotland to Ireland, the "s" got added to their surname. My poor grandpa... I am sure he never knew HIS grandfather was born in IRELAND and had an "s" at the end of his name!

Robert Lyons, grandfather of Dolores (Lyons) Kingston, first introduced her to the mystery of the "s" in the family's surname. (Photo is from Dolores (Lyons) Kingston family collection)

POLL LISTS, YPSILANTI TOWNSHIP AND VILLAGE, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, 1837
(Part Two)

Transcribed by Nancy H. Krohn

Among the earliest extant poll lists for Washtenaw County are two 1837 lists for Ypsilanti Township and Village found in the Washtenaw County, Michigan, records at Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan and are printed courtesy of the library. Michigan achieved statehood on January 26, 1837, and these elections were held later that year. On August 21st and 22nd, representatives to Congress were elected while representatives to the state legislature, state officers and various county officers were elected on November 6th and 7th.

For ease of searching, the two lists are combined and sorted alphabetically by surname. The August list has 392 names and the November list has 540. The original lists were ordinally numbered with the given name followed by surname. The August poll is signed by four inspectors: H. Compton, G. McAlaster, John Rorison, and Nathan Comstock. The November poll does not list inspectors and the name of the clerk does not appear on either list. Spelling remains as found on the original although poor penmanship of the poll recorder as well as condition of the document made it very difficult to decipher several of the names.

Code: AUG.xxx = Poll List August 21 & 22, 1837.ordinal number on original list.
NOV.xxx = Poll List November 6 & 7, 1837.ordinal number on original list.

OBITUARY OF MRS. MARCIA BURROUGHS, 1891

Mrs. Marcia Burroughs passed away from among us on the morning of Saturday, December. 27, 1890. Her maiden name was Marcia Chamberlain and she was born at Honeoye Falls, N.Y., June 27, 1822. At the age of seventeen she was married to Martin Burroughs. They lived in the state of New York for some years, coming from there to Michigan some 36 years ago and finally making their permanent home in Saline. Her husband was called first to go and through the years of her widowhood and illness from cancer, her cheerfulness and patience were remarkable, always thinking of others first, even in the times of her greatest suffering. Three daughters survive her, Mrs. Webb of Newark, N.J., Mrs. Frank Eaton, of Coldwater, Mich., and Miss Ida Burroughs, teacher in our Union school. Her funeral was held at the house Monday afternoon. and she was laid by the side of her husband in Oakwood cemetery.

TEACHERS OF DORR SCHOOL, EARLY DAYS -1941, SHARON TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN

Contributed by Nancy H. Krohn

The history of Dorr School, Sharon Township, written by the school children in 1941, details the history of the township and names of the early settlers in the district, although no early records of the school were available. Some of the early settlers were Philo Hitchcock, who married Myra Winchester, Solomon Couch, Rouse Lemm, Cyrus Raymond, Justin Cook and Elisha Freer.

The first school was a log cabin in Section 4 and was part of District 8. Later District 9 was formed and a school was built in the southwest corner of Section 9. The 1895 Geo. A. Ogle Atlas shows a school on the property of C. C. Dorr. The school stood at the northeast corner of Washburn and Sharon Hollow Roads (Washtenaw County Road Commission, 2012).

This history is found in the collection of Washtenaw Intermediate School District, housed at the Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan and is printed courtesy of the Bentley Historical Library.

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S BAPTISMAL RECORDS, 1847–1875, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN
(Part Thirteen)

Translated & transcribed by Rob Steward, 2017

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered them into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings. The term "geb." in relation to a female name, refers to "born as" or maiden name. The abbreviation "unehl." refers to unehelich or illegitimate. A "+" sign or cross at the beginning or end of a line was later added to the original record to indicate the person is deceased. A "-?-" indicates the specific entry was illegible.

Rev. Schmid's Baptismal Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the child for that particular year; Name of Child; Parents Names; Place; Birth Date.
(Right hand pages – b.) Baptismal Date and Place; Sponsors Names (sometimes marital status or relationship of the sponsors are listed).
Columns with no entry or missing information are indicated by three hyphens (---).
